UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Defendant Donald K. Emery moves pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) to amend his Response to Plaintiff's Complaint. More specifically, Defendant moves to amend his response to paragraph 7 of the Complaint. In support of his motion, Defendant states as follows:

1 Under Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 15(a)(2), a party may amend by obtaining leave of court.

2 Subdivision (a) encourages the court to look favorably on requests to amend. The rule states that
3 “[t]he court should freely give leave when justice so requires.” Although leave to amend is left
4 to the sound discretion of the court, this discretion “must be guided by the underlying purpose of 5 Rule 15—to facilitate decisions on the merits rather than on the pleadings or technicalities.”

6 United States v. Webb, 655 F.2d 977, 979 (9th Cir.1981). Thus, Rule 15's policy of favoring
7 amendments to pleadings should be applied with “extreme liberality,” Id.; DCD Programs, Ltd.
8 v. Leighton, 833 F.2d 183, 186 (9th Cir.1987), and leave should be granted unless there is bad
9 faith, unwarranted delay, or undue prejudice to the opposing party. Forman v. Davis, 371 U.S.
10 178, 182 (1962).

11 In the present case, justice requires the allowance of the Defendant's motion as the 12 Defendant is simply moving to correct a response to a factual allegation. Since filing his 13 Response to Complaint, Defendant has learned that his response to the factual allegations in 14 paragraph 7 of the Plaintiff's Complaint is inaccurate.

15 Paragraph 7 of the Complaint states:

16 On or about September 10, 1999, PROSPERO and defendant entered into an
17 Amended & Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership for Dotcom Ventures,
18 L.P. (formerly ASCII Ventures, L.P.) a California Limited Partnership, now
19 known as PROSPERO (hereinafter “the Partnership Agreement”). A true and 20 correct copy of the Partnership Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit “A” and 21 made a part hereof. The Partnership Agreement amended the Prior Agreement.

23
24 The Plaintiff contends that the Limited Partnership Agreement, dated September
25 1, 1999 (the “September 1999 Agreement”), was entered into by the General Partner of 26 Prospero on behalf of the limited partners, including the Defendant. See Complaint, ¶8.
27
28 The Plaintiff further contends that the General Partner had authority to enter into the

1 September 1999 Agreement on behalf of the Defendant by virtue of a power of attorney
2 set forth in a Limited Partnership Agreement dated April 1, 1999 (the “April 1999
3 Agreement”).
4

5 In Defendant’s initial Response to the Complaint he admitted the factual
6 allegations contained in paragraph 7. Subsequently, during the course of preparing his
7 discovery responses, Defendant undertook a complete review of his files. Defendant
8 realized during this process that he did not have a copy of the April 1999 Agreement. In 9 light of this discovery, on February 13, 2008 and again on February 15, 2008,
10 Defendant’s counsel requested that the Plaintiff produce a complete copy of the April
11 1999 Agreement.

13 On May 19, 2008, Plaintiff produced an agreement dated April 1, 1999, along
14 with a group of signature pages. Defendant has reviewed this agreement but does not 15 recall whether this is the agreement that he entered into on April 1, 1999. His review of 16 this agreement also does not refresh his recollection as to the specific terms of the 17 agreement that he entered into or whether that agreement contained a power of attorney
18 provision.

20 Thus, the Defendant does not know whether the General Partner signed the 21 September 1999 Agreement pursuant to a valid power of attorney. Accordingly, 22 Defendant cannot admit that “[o]n or about September 10, 1999, PROSPERO and 23 defendant entered into an Amended & Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership for 24 Dotcom Ventures, L.P.” Complaint ¶7. Rather, the Defendant can only admit that on 25 September 10, 1999, the Amended & Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership for
26 September 10, 1999, the Amended & Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership for 27 September 10, 1999, the Amended & Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership for 28

1 Dotcom Ventures, L.P. was signed by the General Partner of Prospero and that a true and
2 correct to copy of September 10, 1999 Agreement is attached to the Complaint.
3

4 Finally, there is no good reason for denying the Defendant's motion because there is no
5 bad faith or dilatory motive on the part of the Defendant. This is the Defendant's first request to 6 amend his Response to Complaint and this amendment will in no way affect the speed of this 7 litigation. Nor would there be any undue prejudice to the Plaintiff by virtue of the allowance of 8 this Amendment. Plaintiff has been on notice that this is an issue for some time, and thus the 9 allowance of the present motion will not cause any undue prejudice to the Plaintiff.
10

11 For these reasons, Defendant respectfully request that the Court allow this Motion and 12 permit Defendant to file his First Amended Answer in the form attached as Exhibit A.
